Go to W. G. Fout for your Christmas presents.
Horace Sheeks reports a boy at his house of the usual weight, 11 pounds.

Don't buy Christmas goods till you have seen Fout's display west side square.

If you will select from W. G. Fout's large stock of Christmas goods, you will be able to please the entire family at a very small cost.

We want several numbers of the WEEKLY GRAPHIC of Dec. 4th. Any one sending us copies of that date will confer an especial favor.

The Sheriff of Washington Co. Iowa came last Saturday and took the horse thief, confined in jail at this place, back to Iowa to answer for his short comings.

Sperry, Adair county, is a good location for a physician and blacksmith. It is surrounded by an excellent country and a physician and blacksmith would meet with good patronage.

Our market reports are corrected the last thing before going to press Thursday afternoon, and our readers will find them in each issue just as they are given us by our business men.

The last shipment of wool by Messrs Kerns and McKeown brought them a good round price, 33 cts per pound. The commission merchants pronounced it very fine. It pays to keep good stock.

Eld. J. W. Davis, of this city has been holding a protracted meeting of some twelve days at Illinois Bend in this county with good results. A congregation of 17 was organized and the number increased to 41. Ten were baptized and quite a religious interest manifested in the community.

Judge Sands received a telegram from Silver City, New Mexico, yesterday stating that W. P. Linder died in that city Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mr. Linder was one of our oldest citizens, a brother of Maj. A. H. Linder, and was well known throughout Adair county.

In this issue we give the law relating to fences, that our readers in the townships which voted the hog law last fall, may know what constitutes a lawful fence. Remember the law published this week is applicable to the six townships voting on the question of restraining sheep and swine, last September.

We are indebted to Mr. C. D. Begole of Lone Pine Cal. for papers giving a splendid description of the "California Alps," and trip to Mount Whitney, which is the highest mountain in the United States, excepting Mount St. Elias.

Mr. Begole, who is a brother of Dr. W. Begole, Prairie Bird, was one of the three men who first made the ascent of Mount Whitney.

Mr. C. S. Hart of Greencastle, carried off the $15 cash prize at the Poultry show last week, for the best breeding pen of chickens. It was awarded to his pen of beautiful Houdans, which the judge, I. N. Baker, declared to be as fine as any he had ever seen. In addition to the cash prize Mr. Hart carried away seven blue ribbons. As we have not yet been furnished with a list of the prizes by the secretary we can not give them this week.

At a meeting of a few of our citizens last week a fire company was organized with the following officers: C. E. Ross, Chief, James Clark, Captain, Geo. Eckert, 2nd Captain. ## The Barbour Dramatic Company

Will appear at Smith's Opera House the entire week, commencing Dec. 14th, in a repertoire entirely new, opening in John Broughmans eccentric comedy, entitled "A LEGAL DOCUMENT OR FLIES IN THE WEB," a play brim full of sparkling wit and humor. On Monday night each gentleman purchasing a reserved seat will be allowed to reserve one extra seat passing one lady free. This liberal offer on the part of the management, should pack the Opera House from pit to dome. Our citizens can rely on first class productions, presented in a first class manner, by a first class company. Wives should insist on their husbands witnessing this play, as it will make them good natured for at least a month, in fact everybody should see it. Reserved seats can be obtained at the Normal Book store.
